NOTICE

The personal use of campaign funds is prohibited.* The use of campaign funds must be related to a political campaign or the holding of a public office or party position. However, campaign funds may be used to reimburse a candidate for expenses related to his campaign or office, to pay taxes on the interest earned on campaign funds or to replace articles lost, stolen, or damaged in connection with a campaign.

Excess campaign funds may be returned to contributors on a pro rata basis, given as a charitable contribution as provided in 26 USC 170(c), given to a charitable organization as defined in 26 USC 501(c)(3), expended in support of or opposition to a proposition, political party, or candidacy of any person, or maintained in a segregated fund for use in future political campaigns or activity related to preparing for future candidacy to elective office.

*The prohibition on the personal use of campaign funds does not apply to campaign funds received prior to July 15, 1986.

Subject: 10 P and 10G reports

This letter is in reference to the above mentioned reports. The week the 10P report was to be mailed in I became sick and was down for a couple of days. When I got back going again, I realized that I had missed the 10P report so I immediately placed the report in the mail. As a matter of fact, the day after I mailed this report, I received a notice from your office of it being late.

I lost the primary on September 30. I assumed that after I filed my election day report, that this was the end of the report. However, I did receive a notice that I was late on a 10G report (which I had just overlooked and had no idea I needed to file since I lost the primary) on November 05, 2006. I am enclosing this report in this letter to send to your office.

I would like to request that any late filing fees be waived on these reports. I ran for the office of school board member in Sabine Parish. I received no money from anyone. I paid out of my pocket for all the expenses that I had for running for office. In addition, all other reports were filed on time.

Your help in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very Respectfully,

Stuart Reeves
